The Sisters of St. Thomas Aquinas

"We come with our glorious Lady and under her protection to place all our affections on the altar of the Temple of the Divine Goodness in order that, without reserve, they may be burned and consumed by the fire of His burning charity."
St. Francis de Sales to the Sisters of the Visitation on the feast of the Presentation of Our Lady

With Praise and Thanksgiving to Almighty God and in gratitude for the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary
the Sisters of St. Thomas Aquinas announce the

Ceremony of Vestition

Thursday, the twentieth of November
Two thousand fourteen at ten o'clock in the morning and the

Ceremony of Profession

Friday, the twenty-first of November
Two thousand fourteen
at ten o'clock in the morning

Most Holy Trinity Chapel
Brooksville, Florida

You are cordially invited to attend.
Receptions immediately following each ceremony

In the Vestition ceremony, two of the postulants will receive the habit of the Congregation and a new name.

In the Profession ceremony, one Novice will be taking her first temporary vows for three years and three of the Sisters will be making their final profession of vows.

In preparation for their ceremony, the postulants have been working on rosaries, habits and crowns of thorns.

September opens the academic year at our schools. This year will be the twelfth year that Queen of All Saints Academy has been in operation.
